

Declaration of Compliance and Statement of Origin

To Whom It May Concern:

This Declaration of Compliance and Statement of Origin is provided by Velasea, LLC (“Velasea”) regarding the Velasea Product SKU’s listed below (the “Velasea Products”).

Based on a review of Velasea’s procurement and manufacturing data, Velasea hereby declares as follows.

NDA Compliance:

In accordance with the National Defense Authorization Act (“NDAA”), the Velasea Products do not include covered telecommunications equipment or services as a substantial or essential component and do not utilize critical technology as defined by Section 889 of the NDAA.

TAA Compliance:

The Velasea Products comply with the requirements of the Trade Agreements Act (“TAA”), which stipulates that the production or substantial transformation of the products is carried out in TAA-compliant countries.

Country of Origin:

The Velasea Products underwent final assembly and were substantially transformed in the USA, and Velasea certifies that the USA is the Country of Origin for the Velasea Products.
